Description of Change to the Customer:

Reason for Revision: The Customer Ready to Receive Date will move from May 5th, 2008 to June 2, 2009. Intel will publish a 2nd revision if this date moves out again.

The Intel 10 Gigabit XF SR Server Adapter, EXPX9501FXSR MM#893254 (Bellefontaine Retail) and 10 Gigabit XF SR Dual Port Server Adapter, EXPX9502FXSR MM#893269 (Green Fountain Retail), will undergo the following change:

High demand for Intel's Gigabit Quad Port adapters are driving some material shortages for these products. Of greatest concern is a voltage regulator purchased from an external supplier. Intel's current order volume has surpassed capacity from this supplier at their research & development site in Germany. Intel is in the process of changing to the suppliers high volume manufacturing facility, located in China, for this component to secure a reliable supply.

This new voltage regulator, manufactured in China, is a Form, Fit and Function drop in compatible component.

As a Result of these changes, the TA# (top assembly) and PBA# (printed board assembly) will roll as noted within the affected products table within this PCN notification.

Customer Impact of Change and Recommended Action:

Customers might expect to see mixed inventory levels, until current inventory levels are depleted.

Customers should contact their local Intel Field Sales Representative if they have any further questions about these changes.
