Product Discontinuance

Forecasted Key Milestones:

Product Discontinuance Program Support Begins:	Feb 03, 2004
Last Product Discontinuance Order Date (Non-Cancelable):	Apr 05, 2004
Last Product Discontinuance Shipment Date:	Oct 04, 2004

Description of Change to the Customer:

Given the mature, established nature of this technology, decreasing demand for development kits, and the availability of equivalent solutions from Third-Party Vendors, Intel announces the product discontinuance for the Intel® PXA250 & 255 Development Kit and their associated Intel® PXA210, PXA250, & PXA255 Daughter Cards, and Intel® PXA262 & PXA263 Daughter Cards.

These products are being discontinued and will be unavailable to future orders following the "Last Product Discontinuance Order Date" (see Forecasted Key Milestones above). Please refer to the "Products Affected" table below for a complete list of products affected by this notification.

In addition, Intel reserves the right to satisfy any Last Time Buy demand with refurbished, like new inventory. This inventory will be updated with the latest, applicable hardware and software revisions, as well as being retested to the same standards as new inventory. All inventory will be sold w/Intel's standard new product warranty and support policy.

Customer Impact of Change and Recommended Action:

Customers are asked to determine their remaining demand for the Intel® PXA250 & 255 Development Kits and their associated Intel® PXA210, PXA250 & PXA255 Daughter Cards, and Intel® PXA262 & PXA263 Daughter Cards, and place their non-cancelable Last Product Discontinuance Orders in accordance with the Key Milestones above listed above.

Customers needing product after the Last Product Discontinuance Order Date are encouraged to visit Intel's Developer.com web-site and consider the alternative solutions:
