New Clamshell, New Box and Remove the ESD (Electrostatic Discharge) Static Bag

Date of Publication: April 22, 2009

Key Characteristics of the Change:

Transport Media

Forecasted Key Milestones:

Date Customer Must be Ready to Receive Post-Conversion Material:	Apr 28, 2009
---	--------------

Description of Change to the Customer:

The Intel 10 Gigabit XF SR Server Adapter (Bellefontaine OEM generic/Retail), Intel 10 Gigabit XF LR Server Adapter (Bellefontaine Retail LR), Intel 10 Gigabit XF SR Dual Port Server Adapter (Green Fountain OEM generic/Retail) & Intel 10 Gigabit AF DA Dual Port Server Adapter (Long Cove OEM generic/Retail) will undergo the following changes:

Clamshell Change:

Intel has modified the clamshell on our heavier Networking Adapters by adding a relief "bubble" area where the corner of the boards were poking a hole through the clamshell during the packaging drop test.

Intel has performed extensive drop testing on the modified clamshell without reproducing the same issue.

As noted by the before and after pictures below.

Old Clamshell, PCB corner poke showing damaged corner of the clamshell.

New Clamshell, added a bubble relief where PCB corner can't poke through at the corner of the clamshell.

Cardboard Recycle Logo Label Change:

Intel will remove the cardboard recycle Label from all shipping boxes and replace with a pre-printed version on the box. This will eliminate the need for extra labels to be placed on boxes at our manufacturing facilities. A picture of this recycle label is shown below.

Remove ESD (Electrostatic Discharge) static bag:

Intel will remove the ESD static bag from the sku's noted within the affected products table within this PCN notification. All sku's affected except the Long Cove product, which never shipped in an ESD static bag.

The ESD static bag is no longer necessary to protect our heavier Networking Adapters, due to the change we made to the clamshell which was explained within this PCN notification.

These heavier adapters used to ship as follows; Adapter placed inside of a clamshell, clamshell placed inside of a ESD static bag and then placed inside of the box..

Now these heavier adapters will ship as follows; Adapter placed inside of a clamshell, placed inside of the box.

Customer Impact of Change and Recommended Action:

As a result of this change the TA (top assembly) number will roll as noted in the affected products table within this PCN notification.

Customers can expect to receive mixed inventory until current inventory level are depleted.
